Elevation Wealth Partners, LLC

Firm Disclosure and Registration

Elevation Wealth Partners, LLC ("Elevation") is an investment adviser registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Registration does not imply a certain level of skill or training.

Elevation is a fee-only investment management firm. Elevation does not sell annuities, insurance, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, limited partnerships, or other commissioned products, and is not affiliated with entities that sell financial products or securities. Elevation accepts no commissions in any form and no finder's fees.

Additional information about Elevation's services, fees, business practices, personnel, and conflicts of interest is available in Elevation's Form ADV Part 2A and Part 2B (Brochure and Brochure Supplement), Form CRS (Client Relationship Summary), and Privacy Policy. These documents are available on this website and, for Form ADV and Form CRS, through the SEC's Investment Adviser Public Disclosure database at adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Professional designations held by Elevation's advisors, including the minimum qualifications required to earn and maintain each designation, are described in Form ADV Part 2B.

Scope of This Website

Elevation may transact business only in those states in which it is registered or in which it qualifies for an exemption or exclusion from registration.

This website is limited to the dissemination of general information regarding Elevation's advisory services, together with access to additional investment-related information and publications. Publication of this website should not be construed as a solicitation to effect transactions in securities, or as the rendering of personalized investment advice for compensation, over the internet.

Any subsequent direct communication with a prospective client will be conducted by a representative who is either registered or qualifies for an exemption or exclusion from registration in the state in which the prospective client resides.

Elevation makes no representation as to the accuracy, timeliness, suitability, or completeness of information prepared by any unaffiliated third party, whether linked from this website or incorporated into it, and takes no responsibility for such information. Links to third-party websites are provided for convenience only and do not constitute an endorsement.

General Information

The information contained on this website and in associated publications is provided for informational and educational purposes only. Nothing contained herein should be construed as personalized investment, legal, tax, accounting, or other professional advice.

No content should be interpreted as a recommendation to buy, sell, or hold any security or to engage in any particular investment strategy. Investment decisions should be based on an individual's circumstances, objectives, risk tolerance, and financial situation.

Content is directed to a general audience and is not tailored to any individual's situation. Readers should not act on any content without consulting a qualified professional regarding their own circumstances.

Investment Risk

All investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal.

Past performance does not guarantee future results.

Diversification does not ensure a profit or protect against loss in declining markets.

No assurance can be given that any investment strategy will achieve its objectives or avoid losses.

Elevation does not represent or guarantee that its services or methods of analysis can or will predict future results, successfully identify market tops or bottoms, or insulate clients from losses due to market corrections or declines.

Asset Class Risk

Different investment types involve varying degrees of risk, and there can be no assurance that any investment, asset class, or strategy will be profitable or suitable for a particular investor.

Educational discussions regarding stocks, bonds, real estate, REITs, international investments, alternatives, commodities, or other investment types are provided for informational purposes only and should not be construed as investment recommendations.

Any discussion of the potential benefits of an investment or asset class should be considered together with the associated risks, which may include market risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, concentration risk, currency risk, inflation risk, leverage risk, and regulatory risk.

Market Commentary, Opinions, and Timeliness

Opinions expressed in articles, commentaries, newsletters, presentations, and social media posts are those of the author as of the date published and are subject to change without notice. Such opinions do not necessarily reflect the views of Elevation or of any other Elevation advisor.

References to market conditions, economic developments, securities, asset classes, sectors, or investment strategies are provided for educational purposes only and should not be interpreted as investment recommendations.

Content reflects information available as of the date published. Market conditions, data, tax law, and Elevation's views change over time. Content is generally not updated after publication and may no longer reflect current information or positions. Readers should not assume that any content remains current.

Forward-Looking Statements, Estimates, and Projections

Certain content may contain forward-looking statements, including expectations, estimates, projections, or forecasts regarding the economy, markets, sectors, or individual companies. Such statements are based on assumptions and information available at the time of publication and are inherently uncertain. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied. Elevation undertakes no obligation to update forward-looking statements after publication.

Index and Benchmark Data

Index performance is presented for comparison and educational purposes only. Indices are unmanaged, do not reflect the deduction of advisory fees, transaction costs, taxes, or other expenses, and cannot be invested in directly. An investor cannot replicate an index.

Comparisons between an index and any portfolio, asset class, or strategy are illustrative only. An index may differ materially from any account or strategy in its holdings, concentration, volatility, and other characteristics.

Time periods shown are selected for illustrative purposes. Returns over different periods may differ materially, and the selection of a starting or ending date can significantly affect the results presented.

Index and market data are obtained from sources believed to be reliable but are not guaranteed as to accuracy or completeness. Data is as of the date stated and is subject to change.

References to Specific Securities

References to specific companies, securities, sectors, or industries are provided for illustrative and educational purposes only and are not recommendations to buy, sell, or hold any security.

Such references do not represent all of the securities purchased, sold, or recommended by Elevation, and no reader should assume that any security or sector mentioned was or will be profitable.

Elevation, its advisors, employees, or clients may hold positions in securities mentioned. Positions are subject to change at any time without notice. Elevation's personal trading policies are described in Form ADV Part 2A, Item 11.

Third-Party Research, Charts, and Data

Elevation may utilize third-party research, commentary, charts, graphics, statistics, calculations, market data, and educational materials from external organizations. Such information is believed to be reliable but cannot be guaranteed as to its accuracy or completeness.

Charts, graphics, and statistics attributed to third parties are reproduced as published and reflect the methodology, assumptions, and time period of the originating source.

Each is identified by source and by the as-of date of the underlying data.

Third-party content is provided solely for informational and educational purposes and does not constitute investment, legal, tax, or accounting advice. References to third-party content do not constitute an endorsement of any investment product, strategy, or service.

Elevation has business relationships with certain organizations whose research or materials it may reference, including its custodian and its third-party account administrator. These relationships, and the conflicts of interest associated with them, are described in Form ADV Part 2A, Items 4, 12, and 14.

Past performance does not guarantee future results.

(Additional sources may be utilized from time to time.)

These sources may be used for research, educational content, charts, market commentary, and statistical information, but Elevation does not necessarily endorse all views expressed by such organizations.

Tax Content

Tax-related discussion appearing in Elevation's articles, commentaries, newsletters, and social media content is provided for general informational and educational purposes only and is not intended as individualized tax advice.

Tax law is complex, changes frequently, and applies differently depending on individual circumstances. Readers should consult a qualified tax professional regarding their specific situation before implementing any tax strategy.

Estate Planning Content

Elevation is not a law firm, does not provide legal advice, and does not prepare estate planning documents.

Estate planning discussions, trust planning concepts, beneficiary planning ideas, and similar content are educational in nature.

Elevation may refer clients to an independent third-party platform for estate planning document preparation. Clients are under no obligation to use it and may work with any attorney or provider of their choice. Elevation receives no compensation from that provider. This arrangement is described in Form ADV Part 2A, Item 4.

Individuals should consult qualified legal counsel regarding estate planning matters and the preparation or review of legal documents.

Insurance Content

Elevation does not sell insurance products and does not receive insurance commissions. Elevation does not serve as an insurance agent. Educational discussions regarding life insurance, long-term care insurance, disability insurance, or other insurance topics are provided solely for informational purposes.

Individuals should consult qualified insurance professionals regarding insurance recommendations and coverage decisions.

Retirement Plan and Employer Plan Content

Discussions involving employer-sponsored retirement plans, including 401(k), 403(b), 457, pension, and similar plans, are provided for informational and educational purposes only and are not intended as individualized investment recommendations.

Plan features, investment options, expenses, distribution rules, and participant rights vary by employer plan. Individuals should consult their plan documents and plan administrator regarding plan-specific provisions.

Social Media

Content published on LinkedIn and other social media platforms is intended solely for informational and educational purposes and should not be interpreted as investment, legal, tax, or accounting advice.

Comments, likes, shares, or follows should not be construed as endorsements of Elevation Wealth Partners or its advisors.

Elevation does not solicit or compensate any person for testimonials or endorsements, and does not compensate any person for the referral of advisory clients. Third-party comments appearing on Elevation's posts or pages are the statements of those individuals and do not reflect the views of Elevation. Elevation reserves the right to moderate or remove comments in accordance with its written policies, including comments that are unlawful, offensive, off-topic, promotional, or that contain personal or account information.

Elevation does not adopt or endorse content published by third parties that it may share, link to, like, or follow.
